FINE TRACT OR LOUDOUN LAND FOR SALE.—By virtue of the authority vested in me as Clerk of the Supreme Court of the will of the late Humphrey B. Powell, my executors, will offer for sale at auction, on Monday next, the 10th inst., a certain tract of land, situate in Loudoun County, Virginia, at a late residence, his FARM, adjacent to the town of Middleburg, containing 437 ACRES OF LAND, more or less, bounded on the N. E. by the FARM lies on the Turnpike road leading from Alexandria, and about 8 miles distant from the city of Washington, D. C.; also, a small tract of land, near the first quality of Loudoun land, nearly all watered, and well timbered, all well watered, a part of it under substantial cultivation. It has been kindly and judiciously cultivated, and contains many fine trees, and grasses, being also some fine meadow on it. There is a comfortable DWELLING HOUSE, with eight rooms, with ample buildings for stables, and stableing, &c., on the part of the farm, and a large barn and granary, and residence, and upon the other end an excellent stone house, with farm buildings &c. The farm is susceptible of easy division into two farms, at almost equal value, by nearly any person.

At the same time and place, we will offer a HOUSE and half acre lot in Middleburg,
